

Intermediate Symbolic Logic

PHIL 379 | Dr. Shawn Klein

This intermediate course in logic focuses on developing students' skill in symbolic logic. Starting with traditional syllogisms, we will study propositional and, if time, predicate logic. It is strongly recommended that one have taken PHIL 221 or an equivalent course in logic.

Time: T/TH 11-12:15

ROCKFORD
COLLEGE